RE: Manchanda v. Matties et al., 18-CV-11092 (PGG)

Dear Judge Gardephe:

With respect to the above-identified proceeding, I am concurrently entering a notice of appearance since it appears that I have been named as a defendant in this lawsuit. I do not believe I was properly served by Plaintiff and I do not know the date of such alleged service. Since my current counsel has also been named in this litigation, I am appearing pro se and separately filing a notice of appearance.

It appears that several of the named defendants have already requested and obtained an extension of time to January 18, 2019 from the Court. I respectfully request that I receive an extension until January 31, 2019 to answer or otherwise respond to Plaintiff's complaint so that I am not in default despite the attempted recent filings by Plaintiff. It is my understanding from Ms. Danielle Levine, Assistant U.S. Attorney, that several of the parties who have already appeared before the Court are working on a global stipulation of dismissal for all defendants – not just those who have entered notices of appearance. I request that I also be included in the stipulation of dismissal and thus be removed from this meritless vexatious litigation.

Respectfully submitted,

Douglas Senderoff
